Meet Aleece!

What do you do at the library?

I am a Youth Services Librarian and my job is very diverse because I do a lot of different programs for all different ages, I work on off-site events/programs and I also order for the youth collection.

Why did you want to become a librarian?

I worked as a shelver in the Children's department at my local library in high school and up until that point I read but I didn't really enjoy reading. It was during my time at the library that I discovered what I liked to read and that really got me hooked. This also made me appreciate how important libraries are and just how much it impacted my life. I want to do the same thing for other kids.

What's your educational background?

I received my masters in Library and Informational Studies from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

What's the best book you've read recently?

I'm always reading so for picture books I would say Everyone Loves Cupcake by Kelly DiPucchio and Please, Mr. Panda by Steve Antony. Manga would have to be World Trigger by Daisuke Ashihara and Anonymous Noise by Ryoko Fukuyama. Then for fiction it would have to be The Girl Who Drank the Moon by Kelly Barnhill.

If you didn't work at the library, what job would you like to try?

I love to travel so I am not sure specifically what I would do but it would be fun if I could travel for a living. I also really like books so I feel that I would never stray too far from them.

What's your best vacation?

Last summer I took a trip to Japan for two weeks and absolutely loved every minute of it and I would love to go back.
