

The Cat In The Hat

Summary

The book "The Cat in the Hat" is about two siblings who are left home alone for awhile and they have nothing to do. They stair out the window and they saw a tall cat with a red a white-striped hat on. He performs tricks for them to entertain them. The "tricks" then get out of hand and they become more dangerous which makes a mess. Once their mother arrives he's forced to clean it all up.

Rating

I rated this book 5 stars because it was a very entertaining book about a tall cat who wears a red and white striped hat with a red bowtie.

- Dr. Seuss
- Born in 1914 in Springfield, Massachusetts
- Died on September 24, 1991

Dr. Seuss won two Academy Award, two Emmy Awards, a Peabody Award, and the Pulitzer Prize. Other books he wrote were "Green Eggs and Ham", "The Lorax", "Horton Hears a Who", and "Fox in Socks".

