Round Lake Area Public Library Policy Regarding Unsupervised Minors

The following summarizes a policy adopted by the Library Board of Trustees

Children under the age of 10 must be accompanied by a caregiver age 14 or older while in the library. If a child under the age of 10 is attending a library program that does not require a caregiver to be present, the caregiver should remain inside the library building.

Children must be picked up promptly when the library closes. In the event a child under the age of 18 is left without a ride home after the library has closed, the library staff will attempt to contact the child's caregiver by phone. If a caregiver cannot be contacted after 20 minutes, library staff will contact the Round Lake Police Department to take custody of the child.

La Feria Internacional del Libro de Guadalajara (FIL)

Dos representantes de la biblioteca asistieron e hicieron compras en la Feria 2011 de materiales para la colección de esta biblioteca. Disfrute de las más recientes publicaciones y de materiales que no son disponibles con vendedores en los Estados Unidos. Los libros ya están en los estantes de su biblioteca y puede ver algunos en la sección de Materiales Recién Llegados. El 2011 fue el 25 aniversario de la celebración de FIL.

La Feria Internacional del Libro de Guadalajara es la reunión editorial más importante de Iberoamérica y un extraordinario festival cultural. Fundada hace 26 años por la Universidad de Guadalajara, es una feria para profesionales en donde el público es bienvenido, lo que la distingue del resto de las principales ferias que se realizan en el mundo. Sin descuidar su vocación como un encuentro de negocios, la FIL fue concebida como un festival cultural en el que la literatura es la columna vertebral, con un programa en el que participan autores de todos los continentes y diferentes lenguas, así como un espacio para la discusión académica de los grandes temas de actualidad. Hubo 34 mil metros cuadrados donde 900 editoriales de 42 países, ofrecieron sus títulos.

Durante los nueve días de la Feria, el público escucha a sus autores preferidos; la industria del libro convierte a Guadalajara en su corazón, y la ciudad se llena de música, arte, cine y teatro del país o región invitado de honor; que este año es Chile.

Siempre que esté buscando algún material y no lo tiene la biblioteca pueden pedir la compra y haremos todo lo posible para conseguirlo. Para más información comuníquese con Maggie Rodriguez (847) 546-7060 o al correo electrónico mrodriguez@rlalibrary.org.
